We thank God for taking us this far. It's december already Comments: year, our partners support us throughout the Zimbabwe to move forward. Murerezi has grown and is we thank God. This month of december has been hectic because our members are now farming and we attendance has been low, but this has made us to work more doing visit and check ups. Despite the low attendance, we have been pushing and praying for our members. Throughout the year we lost members, we have so failed resolutions but we pray that the year 2026, the work and mission will move forward.

We want to thank God for his grace this month and Comments: We are grateful for your prayers and support this. As we prepare to end the year, we are thankful to God for the work done so far in our circuit. As we come to the end of the year it will be a time of farming and most of our members are busy and we have less members of in our Sunday services these days but we are making sure that we visit our members and getting in touch with them. This month we dedicated our month to be a month of thanksgiving. God has been so faithful to us as a church, looking at the number of people we are winning to Christ, it's a blessing.
 We are seeing lives changing in Mberengwa East area and there's transformation of lives. We are so thankful
