Comments: The year is about to end. It was not an easy year especially in our country Zimbabwe. It was not a good year especially for us pastor considering the economic hardships we are facing. As family man sometimes putting food on the table was not that easy. The churches were not financially stable. However in those challenges we continued to minister.

SECTION 5 OFFERING FOR THE MONTH

1. LANGXIAXANI - $4 average per week
2. MAPEDZA - $4
3. ZERUNI - $4
4. DIP - $2
5. - $2
- 6.

SECTION 6: OTHER ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

* Weekdays are meant for visits: Visiting people at their homes.
 * Wednesdays are for prayer: These prayer since we started are being overwhelmingly attended.

* So November there was a circuit big Sunday at Langxiaxani. The attendance was not that good because of the rains that were there. But we did have a great service in our small number.

* ACCJ conference from 11-14 December. A good number from our circuit managed to attend this conference.

* 21-12-2025: If everything goes well we are going to have our Christmas Party at Mapedza Church. This has been happening for many years. The service is meant to share and fellowship together as a church. People will be exchanging Christmas gifts.

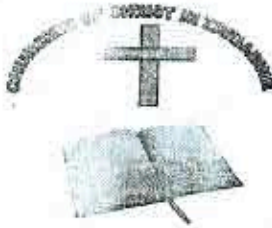

SECTION 7. CONCLUSION:

A the year is about to end. All glory goes to our good God who has made the journey easier for us financially countries and even hunger couldn't stop us. Also my gratitude goes to our overseas friends who have stood with us both spiritually and financially

SECTION 6: OTHER ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- * All week days are meant for home visits and also praying for the sick.
- * Wednesdays are for prayer. This midweek service is attended so overwhelmingly. 5-10 people from other denomination come and attend these Wednesday prayer services.
- * 31 October to 2 November we did our District Prayer retreat at Mapedza church. The retreat was a great success where the main objective was to encourage each other to be prayerful no matter the challenges or situations we are in.
- * 29-11-2025 - A Committee of the circuit we had our meeting to plan for our Christmas service, before worshipping with the Zeruni church. Our Christmas has become so calendrical, where no members of the church we exchange Christmas presents.
- * 27-11-2025

SECTION 7. CONCLUSION:

That is a challenging year. It has been for the church as well as us pastors financially. Things were not that easy at all but all thanks go to our overseas churches who supported us spiritually, but mostly financially.
